Our aim is the pursuit of excellence through a holistic education based on Gospel values. We strive to develop children's self-esteem and to motivate them to achieve their full potential in a spirit of friendship and belonging.

Our business is learning. Our aim is that everybody in the school

- will experience success as an individual
- will be treated with respect and care
- has a stake in the school.
- As Catholic educators, within the Loreto tradition and ethos, our aim is to collaborate with the parents of our students to encourage pursuit of excellence appropriate to each student so that he/she may develop fully his/her particular gifts.
- A broad holistic curriculum is offered to enable students to reach their full potential and to develop a love of learning.
- Every opportunity is given to enable students to develop powers of critical reflection thereby building independence of mind as a means towards responsible citizenship. This is in keeping with the Loreto core values of Truth, Justice, Freedom, Sincerity & Joy.
- The nurturing of the aesthetic sense through the creative arts and an appreciation of heritage and culture is central to the Loreto tradition.

St. Patrick's Loreto PS has girls and boys in our Junior and Senior Infant classes. Boys transfer from the school when they have completed Senior Infants. While St. Patrick's Loreto PS is not a special school, the school is inclusive of all children with such needs and endeavours to meet those needs within the mainstream class environment. St. Patrick's has a special class to provide an education exclusively for students with Autism Spectrum Disorder.

St. Patrick's Loreto Primary School will cooperate with the National Council for Special Education in the performance by the Council of its functions under the Education for Persons with Special Educational Needs Act 2004 relating to the provision of education to children with special educational needs, including in particular by the provision and operation of a special class or classes when requested to do so by the Council.
